  - Impressions from Teacher Leadership Committee and Counselor
    - We want to have more conversations and direct instruction on:
      - student to student interactions
      - conflict management
      - strategies for responding to bullying
    - Group discussed how these themes were similar to parent feedback. Tanner shared that this work is connected with several points of the Strategic Plan. Tanner spoke to the work that Well Managed Schools
Team and Counselor are starting to focus their work to address these areas.
